

TAMMANY DROPS HEARST IN VOTE ON REFORM BILL

Independence League Hit
by Passage of Assembly Election Act.

(Special to The Evening World.)
ALBANY, March 25.—The Assembly to-day passed by a vote of 115 to 18 the Phillips Election Reform bill, which aims a blow at Hearst's Independence League. The measure prohibits the placing of a candidate's name in more than one column of the official ballot. Tammany broke away from Hearst. Col. Jimmy Oliver, the Murphy leader, declaring that the editor intends to go it alone next fall. When asked if he would support Oliver if the latter were again nominated for office, Oliver promptly replied: "Yes, if he gets the nomination without the aid of a club or a Jimmy. We may have to swallow that point again, and no matter how it tastes we will have to stand it." "But Hearst," said Oliver, "announces that he will go it alone next time. He showed his Democracy when he nominated Armory in the district represented by the late Mr. Stanley. And Hearst got a count. It was a poor one."

Assemblyman Hammond charged that a member of Assembly in New York who sought the endorsement of the Independence League, or the Citizens' Union, was usually asked to "come up" with $100 to $500. Assemblyman Stern, of New York, said he was indignant by the Independence League; yet he believed he was as good a Democrat as any one in the house. "Police," yelled Oliver. Up-State Democrats took the Hearst end of the argument. Some of the New York Republicans advocated the bill because they believed it was a step toward the Massachusetts ballot. The eighteen voting against the bill were Brough, Conkling, Francis, Beece, Robinson, Prentiss, Wells and Young, New York Republicans; Stern, Democrat; New York; Brown and O'Brien, Republicans; Collins and Stevenson, Independence; C. F. Foley, Glynn, Holmes and Stratton, Democrats.

EASTERWEAR

For Women: The Most Attractive Displays
Of The Kind We Have Ever Held.

Correct outfitting simplified—whether the outfit is to be a simple one or one elaborate as the individual dressmaker could produce to your order.

The story starts with the Splendid Costumes Ready-to-Wear.

Be sceptical as you please about excellence and individuality in ready-to-wear Gowns. Doubt our ability to furnish a faultless-fitting gown that has no duplicate.

But be sure to inspect the display. A revelation awaits you.

The idea is comparatively new, yet broadly developed.
The net result:

To order quality in gown-making at one-third to one-half less than to-order work usually commands.

Here are scores of different models—originals from abroad, adaptations of the foreign Costumes and original designs from our own designers.

In such fabrics as Chiffon failles, marisettes, satin failles and other novelties, richly trimmed with laces.

The Price Range $62.75 to $226.00.

Mayhap, no alterations will be required. Otherwise they will be made promptly by an alteration force quite as efficient as we maintained formerly for our dressmaking department.

High-Class Negligees.

A special room adjoining the Costume and Millinery rooms is devoted to fine Negligees—Tea Gowns, Matinee Suits and Kimonos.

The Matinee Suits—dainty creations of ribbons, laces and delicate Swiss—and a new importation of Japanese Hand-Embroidered Kimonos are particularly interesting.

Prices range by easy stages

From $16.24 up to $72.25

Straus Cut Glass Is
The Recognized Standard

THE word of World's Fair Judges in awarding Straus Cut Glass first prize must be accepted as final. When you have occasion to buy Cut-Glass, for your own crystal closet or as an Easter gift, let that Fair award guide you.

There is no chance-taking. The ware is deeply cut, sparkling, and its brilliancy is permanent.

It costs no more—generally much less—than the shallow, lustreless glass that is heaped upon the market at intervals for sale purposes.

That, too, is called Cut Glass—just as silver-plated ware is called Silverware—and it differs from Straus Cut Glass just as plated ware differs from sterling.

Our Glass cutting shops on the 8th floor are open to visitors. We invite you.

SHOES

For Man
and Boy.

In line with other improvements on the Fifth Floor—this Footwear store, with its splendid assortments of Men's and Boys' Shoes.
None more extensive ever collected under the Macy roof.

The regular stock values would be counted exceptional in any other shop. The $3.13 Shoes for men you MAY match elsewhere for $3.50, but in all likelihood you will have to pay $4.00. The same thing holds good throughout the lines. Of exceptional interest:

Men's $3.50 and $4.00 Oxfords at $2.89.

Distinctly new lasts, in patent leather, gun metal and tan
Russia calfskin and golden brown kidskin.

In the nick of time for men who want to make Easter a getaway day for low footwear.

For men who want the

Most Comfortable Shoe Procurable

We suggest our arch support and cushion sole Shoe. It is a stout Shoe, yet neat and stylish; designed especially for men who do much walking and require an easy-fitting Shoe. "A featherbed for the feet," says one man who champions this particular line.
Price $4.69 a pair.

Special for Boys—Sturdy Shoes made of box calfskin with heavy soles of oak tanned leather; $2.50 values, sale. $1.98

The Best of Two Continents

J.B.

The J.B. Corset is shaped on somewhat similar lines and contains the best materials and the best workmanship that American manufacturing affords. Made in this country its cost is of course less than the imported corset—$1.00 to $12.50.
